

We already have too many large media conglomerates. Do not make more, inact laws that make their nature break up more likely.